Philip Gibbs Breaks the Silence of the Censorship.

REALITIES OF WAR. By PHILIP GIBBS.

Author of "The Soul of the War," etc. Demy 8vo. 15s. net.

A BOOK THAT SHOULD BE READ BY EVERYBODY BECAUSE:

I. It reveals facts about the war nobody dared tell before.
II. It deals outspokenly and courageously with urgent present-day problems which are a direct consequence of the war.
III. By drawing aside the veil which has obscured our view of the past, the author shows how dangers that are urgent in the future may be avoided.

By the President of the French Republic.

SWARTHMORE PRESS BOOKS

"THE GREATEST BOOK THE WAR HAS PRODUCED."

Civilisation: 1914-17.

By GEORGES DUHAMEL.

Translated by T. P. CONWIL-EVANS.

Crown 8vo. 6s. net.

"'Civilisation' is a marvellous book—perhaps with 'Vie des Martyres' the greatest book that the war has produced, perhaps the only book, indeed, to which the word great can be applied at all. . . There is no reason why 'Civilisation' should not have the success in this country that it has had already in its own. We have not ourselves produced a war book to compare with it."—Everyman.

Leagues of Nations:

Ancient, Mediæval and Modern.

By ELIZABETH YORK.

8s. 6d. net.

A deeply interesting and valuable study of the growth of the League idea from the days of early Greece.

"The whole book, soundly and attractively written, is just what the plain man who is not specifically a student of history needs for his enlightenment."—Mr. GEORGE SAMPSON in The Bookman.

The Working Woman's House.

By A. D. SANDERSON FURNESS AND MARION PHILLIPS, D.Sc.

F'cap 8vo. 1s. 6d. net. Illustrated.

This book deals with what the working woman wants in her home of the future. It is founded on an enquiry made by Labour women during the years 1918 and 1919. It deals not only with the inside of the house but its surroundings; and is a first-hand statement of the working woman's point of view. It is illustrated with plans and photographs of interiors, fittings, etc.

"Finely illustrated and simply packed with practical suggestions."—Daily Herald.

NEW AND FORTHCOMING VOLUMES FROM THE HOUSE OF CASSELL

GENERAL

OUT OF MY LIFE
By MARSHAL VON HINDENBURG.

With Photogravure Frontispiece. Cloth, 31s. 6d. net.

The most important book about the War which can come out of Germany. But it is not entirely a war book. Von Hindenburg traces his association with the German Army from the days of his youth. He shows that Army in the creating, the great military machine being slowly and carefully perfected for its assault against the world's peace.

† WITH THE "DIE-HARDS" IN SIBERIA

By COL. JOHN WARD, C.B., C.M.G., M.P. With 8 Plates. Cloth, 10s. 6d. net.

A straightforward, manly book, dealing with the adventures of the 25th Battalion of the Middlesex Regiment in Siberia.

A DICTIONARY OF NAPOLEON AND HIS TIMES

In the Light of Modern Research, by HUBERT N. RICHARDSON, B.A., F.R.A.I., F.C.S. Cloth, 30s. net.

A collection of material relating to the most significant and arresting figure of the modern world, and those brilliant men and women who circled round him.

†MOUNTAIN MEMORIES: A Pilgrimage of Romance

By SIR MARTIN CONWAY, M.P., Litt.D., Vice-Pres.S.A., Vice-Pres.R.G.S.

With 16 Plates. Cloth, 21s. net.

All the explorations among the mountains of the world made by the author during his years of climbing are here described in one delightful book; delightful from every point of view—travel, description, mountaineering, side-thoughts, rippling humour, quiet philosophy, and added to all a series of black-and-white reproductions that add grace to an already fascinating book.

* BEFORE THE WAR

By VISCOUNT HALDANE. Cloth, 7s. 6d. net.

"The judgment of a fair and open-minded observer of the decisive facts and the deciding men."—Daily Chronicle.

"His book . . . is one that no student of the War and its first causes can neglect."—Punch.

*INDISCRETIONS OF THE NAVAL CENSOR

By REAR-ADMIRAL SIR DOUGLAS BROWN RIGG, Bart. With 12 Plates. Cloth, 12s. 6d. net.

"Terse, outspoken and humorous. An admirable account of the working of the Naval Censor's office."—Morning Post.

†GERMANY'S HIGH SEA FLEET IN THE WORLD WAR
PERSONAL RECOLLECTIONS OF ADMIRAL SCHEER.

Translated from the Original German with Portrait of the Author, Maps and Plans. Cloth, 25s. net.

Beginning with that historic Kiel week of 1914, the ex-Commander-in-Chief of the German Navy tells of the doings of the High Sea Fleet through the war down to the time when the Revolution destroyed it as a fighting force. When war broke out he was merely the commander of a squadron, but when Jutland was fought, Admiral Scheer it was who led the German Fleet.

BRILLIANT FICTION

The Top of the World
By ETHEL M. DELL. 7s. 6d. net.

Deals with the bitter struggle between the old love and the new, and the dangers and difficulties of the path which leads at last to that region at the top of the world.

The Vanity Girl
By COMPTON MACKENZIE. 8s. 6d. net.

A story of tragic interest related in Compton Mackenzie's most masterly manner.

The Ancient Allan

"Ranks with Sir Rider's best, and how good that can be his admirers know."—Pall Mall Gazette.

†Whitewash
By H. A. VACHELL. 8s. 6d. net.

Should a man keep silence when duty bids him expose the mother of the girl he loves? That is the problem facing the hero of Mr. Vachell's new work.

The Romantic
By MAY SINCLAIR. 8s. 6d. net.

This novel will, we believe, eclipse as a piece of characterisation any previous work May Sinclair has done.

The Vow of Silence
By ALICE PERRIN. 6s. net.

One of those stories of the mystery and characteristics of India which you must finish.

Captivity
By M. LEONORA EYLES. 7s. 6d. net.

New Novel

THE HOUSE OF BALTAZAR

2nd large Edition in the Press. 7s. net.

"An entertaining story, very ingeniously contrived. . . . In John Baltazar there is real and original character drawing. His abrupt changes of front, his glowing energy, his eager, impetuous heart, and his superb capacity for work make him a truly loveable figure."—Daily Telegraph.

"A story which we read with pleasure. . . . Mr. Locke as a story-teller is both happy and lucky."
—Morning Post.

"'The House of Baltazar' is a fine novel. . . . John Baltazar will pass into the glorious company of Marcus and Simon, and Septimus and Paragot."—Liverpool Courier.

DIPLOMACY AND THE STUDY OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS.

By D. P. HEATLEY. Extra crown 8vo. 7s. 6d. net.

Manchester Guardian.—"A learned little book intended for the guidance of historical students, and especially for those interested in comparatively recent periods of history. . . . Mr. Heatley has provided us with a wealth of valuable and interesting quotations in his footnotes, which are not the least attractive feature of this very useful work."

DISCOVERY

A MONTHLY POPULAR JOURNAL OF KNOWLEDGE

Edited by A. S. RUSSELL, M.C., D.Sc.

6D. NET.

¶ DISCOVERY is a new journal for the thinking men and women—for the intelligently curious who wish to hear what experts have done or are doing both in the sciences and the humanities.

¶ The articles are written by authorities, but they write, not in the language of their specialism, but in that simpler language which plain men do understand—namely, English.

¶ All the chief subjects in which investigations are being pursued will be dealt with in turn, and treated in such a way as to make clear the interesting features in the discoveries with which they deal.

¶ DISCOVERY has the active support of the principal Learned Societies and Educational Associations, the Trustees being Sir J. J. Thomson, O.M., P.R.S., Sir F. G. Kenyon, K.C.B., P.B.A., Prof. O. C. Seward, Sc.D., F.R.S., Prof. R. S. Conway, Litt.D., F.B.A.

No. 1.—JANUARY. 4th Impression.
No. 2.—FEBRUARY. 2nd Impression.
No. 3.—MARCH. Just published.

DISCOVERY can be obtained through all newsagents and booksellers, price 6d. net; by post 7½d. Annual Subscription, 6s.; by post 7s. 6d.
